Hello,

Dining to Donate is one way that Applebee's gives back to their community, by working with non-profit organizations like the Birds of Vermont Museum. Applebee's will donate 15% of the price of a meal to us as long as the diner presents this flyer and dines on a certain pre-selected day. Our day is March 6th! Please bring this flyer. Please consider supporting the Birds of Vermont Museum's Bridges to Birds project by going out to eat that evening, between 4 and 9 pm, at Applebee's in South Burlington. All funds collected will help connect people to birds; in particular, the Museum will use these funds towards rebuilding our flood-damaged entranceway and completing an outdoor tree-centered, bird watching and educational space.

This is an informal way to gather as individual families, reconnecting friends, or as a larger group. We will also have a card to sign for Bob who is turning 94 on Feb 21st! Please feel free to copy the flyers and distribute them personally before March 6th; everyone who dines at Applebee's and shows the flyer on March 6th will benefit the Museum.

See you there and thank you!
