

3-4 Scavenger Hunt

Name _____

Grade _____

FIRST FLOOR

Wetland Diorama:

What do you notice about this environment?

Predict what some of these birds might eat.

Find the Great Blue Heron. Look at the card that describes the bird, what does it eat?

Find the Northern Shoveler. Look at the card that describes the bird, what does it eat?

Draw the beak of the Great Blue Heron

Draw the beak of the Northern Shoveler

Endangered and Extinct
Birds of North America

What does it mean to be extinct?

Name two birds that are extinct?

What does it mean to be endangered?

Name two birds that are endangered?

What are some of the reasons animals become endangered and extinct?

Viewing Window

Are there birds at the bird feeders today? Yes _____ No _____

What types of food can the birds find at the feeders?

With the help of the posters on the wall, can identify one of the birds at the feeders??

Which type of feed is the bird eating?

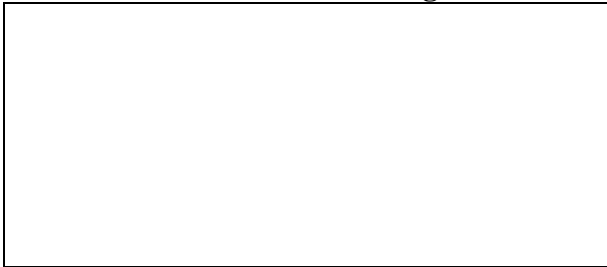

Where does this type of feed come from?

Where does the energy come from to create this food?

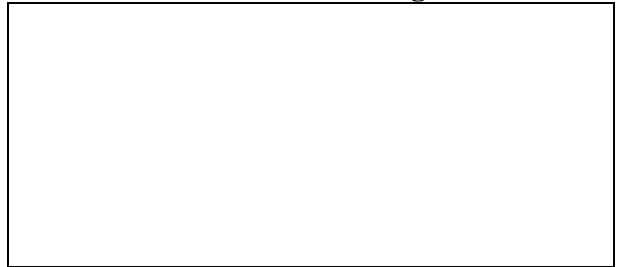

UPSTAIRS
Raptor Area

This is a group of birds that we call raptors; these are animals that eat other animals. Can you find an animal that might get eaten by a raptor?

Draw the beak of the Bald Eagle

Draw the feet of the Bald Eagle

Do you think the beak and the feet help the Bald Eagles hunt?

What do you think a Bald Eagle eats?

Nesting Gallery

What kind of bird nests inside a tree? _____

What kind of bird lives in or on a man made structure? _____

Do you think the Scarlet Tanager nest could withstand a strong wind? Yes_____No_____

Do you think a Cliff Swallow's nest could withstand a strong wind? Yes_____No_____

Where does the Common Snipe build its nest?

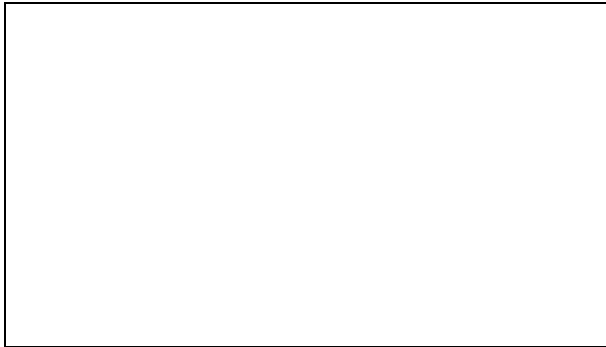

In the Ruffed Grouse exhibit how many parts of the birds' life cycle are shown? What are they? _____

Do you think you could build a nest with your teeth and toes? Yes_____No_____

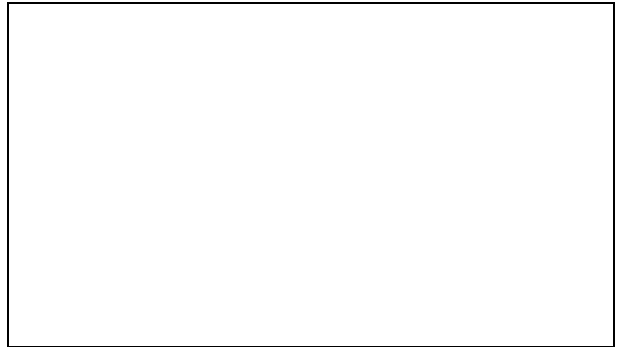

As you walk through the exhibits what do you notice that birds have that people don't have? _____

Some birds have eyes on the side of their head, and some birds have eyes in the front of their head.

Find a bird with eyes on the side of its head. Draw the bird's head.

Find a bird with eyes in the front of its head. Draw the bird's head.

What type of bird has eyes in the front of their head?
